

Flavio Cucchi

Biography (Short)

"One of the most renowned and admired Italian guitarists" (CD Classica), Flavio Cucchi has given hundreds of recitals in Europe, America, Asia and Australia in addition to participating in radio and TV shows for some of the biggest world-wide broadcasting corporations. As a soloist, he has played in over then 30 European cities and he is regularly invited by the major festivals all over the world. Many composers have been inspired to write for Flavio including the famous pianist Chick Corea who wrote: "Ever since I first heard Flavio play the guitar I've been a big fan. His playing is simply filled with Beauty.."

He has held the Chair of Professor of Classical Guitar at the Istituto Superiore di Studi Musicali "P. Mascagni" in Livorno, he also held Masterclasses in the USA, Mexico, Italy, Spain, Russia, Sweden, China, Japan, Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia ecc.